

Epoxy Mixing

I'm always looking for something to mix small amounts of epoxy on. I've found that the CD's I scrap and the one's I receive in the mail as advertising make good mixing surfaces. You can use each one about 3 or 4 times then just discard it. Just use the bottom side, as the epoxy removes the printing of the label side.

Submitted by Kenneth Sulkowski